

TRANSITION AGE YOUTH INSTITUTE

Knowledge is Power:
Living, Learning & Earning

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

SEPTEMBER 26-27, 2017 | SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY

The 2017 Transition Age Youth Institute offers professionals and peers working with school age youth the opportunity to:

ENHANCE knowledge through interactive discussions in critical areas such as CTE & employment, inclusion, life-enrichment, literacy and managed care;

REFLECT AND DELIBERATE on the challenges and rewards of innovative designs and youth service delivery models;

COLLABORATE across all interested stakeholders;

SHARE, CAPTURE AND TAKE BACK experiences, strategies and informational tools that will successfully move transition services forward.

Share expertise, peer strategies, and agency advances at The 2017 Transition Age Youth Institute. Assist us to promote a collaborative dialogue, technical assistance and/or training to colleagues from across New York State. The Institute Collaborators seek proposals that promote innovative, future-oriented service designs and promising practices. All sessions allow for a transfer of knowledge that encompasses practical strategies, skills, and tools for middle managers, providers and peers. Presentations should describe delivery methods that include participant engagement, follow-up and offer linkages to resources for further learning.
